

March 1, 2025

Dear Central Senior Families,

February passed quickly, with a few snow days to help it on its way. Although the month is short, there was a lot happening.

Amongst all the snow days, our grade 8 students completed course selections. We will now plan days to transition the students to grade 9 at their home high school over the next few months.

Aubrey Noronha presented to the students on the 21st and to the staff on the 25th. All of the students were engaged and actively listening during his presentation, "Why colour blind isn't good enough anymore?" Aubrey talked to students about their human family and what is/isn't racist.

Upcoming Spirit Days this week:

Monday - Pajama Day

Tuesday - Professional Day

Wednesday - Tacky Tourist Day

Thursday - Twin Day/Multiples

We have one more week and March Break begins. We hope that everyone enjoys the week away from school and comes back well rested and ready to tackle the last 3.5 months.

Thank you for your support,

Charlene Chapman
Central Senior School
Principal
